

Making Neuroscience Fun

A Brain Awareness Program for All Ages

Brain Health: It's SPECTacular

Lots of Ways to Learn (🧠 A Cognitive Health Story) (2nd Grade – 7-8 yrs.) Power Your Brain Challenge Questions

-  1. Learning is something that all _____ can do. Slide 2
  - A. things
  - B. animals
  - C. computers

-  2. Long ago, children did not go to school because they _____. Slide 3
  - A. did not want to
  - B. knew how to read and write already
  - C. spent all their time trying to get what they needed to stay alive

-  3. Why do you spend so much time in school on reading and writing? Slide 4
  - A. The teachers like teaching those subjects best.
  - B. Everyone likes them.
  - C. Once you know how to read and write, you can learn anything.

-  4. How do most animals learn? Slide 4
  - A. By watching videos on YouTube
  - B. By reading books
  - C. By watching other animals

-  5. Everyone can learn, but people learn in _____ way(s). Slide 5
  - A. the same
  - B. different
  - C. only one

-  6. The secret to learning is finding a way that is fun and a way that your brain likes. Slide 7
  - A. True
  - B. False

-  7. As you grow up, your body and brain _____. Slide 10
  - A. grow up too
  - B. start to get smaller
  - C. stay the same

-  8. If you can read and write, you can do other things more easily. Slide 11
- A. True
  - B. False
-  9. When you need to learn something new in school, find a way to learn that your brain _____. slide 12
- A. does not like
  - B. likes
  - C. thinks is confusing
-  10. If you are having trouble learning, you should _____. Slide 13
- A. give up
  - B. get discouraged
  - C. ask for help